Poor Best

To our friends -- We have decided to use this area to share things with our visitors. It could be words of encouragement, revelations, prophecies, etc. If you have something you would like to share, we encourage you to submit it to us for review and editing as may be required. Any submissions will remain anonymous. All glory goes to God. We will find a place in our Storehouse to archive these for future reference. Emails may be sent to submissions@ministryofprayer.org. We pray you be blessed as you visit this website.

NOTE: We invite you to download our newly created "Promise Card" which is stored under Scriptures for Framing. We hope it will bless you.

2019

We are urged to seek God while He may be found and that He will not always strive with man. There comes a time, in God's time, when a full measure of sin has come to maturity. Only God know when that time comes but with it comes a judgement. And indeed, at this point in history, it is likely to be the final judgement.

Neither I or anyone else, except God, knows all that lays ahead in the year 2019. It is actually the Hebrew year 5779 and it began a few months ago on our calendar. Our God Who knows the end from the beginning knows every thought in the heart of every created being. That includes the great enemy who knows his time is short.

Nearly 2000 years ago the Apostle Paul wrote that now our salvation is closer than when we first believed and it is high time to awake out of our sleep. Time to lay aside that sin which does so easily beset us and run the race set before us. "For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to You in a time when You may be found; Surely in a flood of great waters they shall not come near Him." Psa. 32:6

I have such a renewed hunger and thirst for the things of God and I am so grateful to the Lord for that. None of us can even seek the Lord unless the Holy Spirit puts that desire within us. But the Holy Spirit exposes much of Himself when joining with us and therefore makes Himself vulnerable. He can be grieved and if He ever leaves, there remains no place found for repentance. His role is to be the Comforter but He is to be cherished.

None of us will ever reach that full place of maturity while we struggle with the flesh but we must all earnestly try to lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of us. That necessarily means earnestly seeking after the Lord. We have to determine to spend time in His Word and in prayer with Him.

God lives outside of time and by doing so He is always there for each of us all the time. That means God waiting is waiting for you to find time for Him. He Who causes all things to be is waiting for you. God forgive us for being so neglectful, for not appreciating the enormity of all You have done for us.

His desire is to spend time with His creation and so much more that we cannot begin to comprehend. He want us to come to Him so we can be transformed by His Word and His presence. His bride needs to make herself ready for the wedding feast. Oh what glory awaits us in Him and all of creation travails in expectation. "Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready. And to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints." Rev. 19:7-8

Will you join me in this earnest prayer of Paul's in Philippians?

For my determined purpose is that I may know Him, that I may progressively become more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him, perceiving and recognizing and understanding the wonders of His Person more strongly and more clearly, and that I may in that same way come to know the power outflowing from His resurrection which it exerts over believers, and that I may so share His sufferings as to be continually transformed in spirit into His likeness even to His death, in the hope that if possible I may attain to the spiritual and moral resurrection that lifts me out from among the dead even while in the body. Not that I have now attained this ideal, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to lay hold of (grasp) and make my own, that for which Christ Jesus (the Messiah) has laid hold of me and made me His own. Phil. 3:10-12 (Amplified)
