

i thought today i would just share a writing from a ministry, which i receive each day.

they are always informative and useful. if you would like to get on their mailing list, it is as follows. <http://hopeoftheworld.com/> just look under the "daily sapphire" tab and subscribe.

please be blessed. there are so many out there anxious to share the good news of the gospel.

their messages are usually short and sweet, unlike my long monsters. we all just want you blessed. knowing Jesus is the greatest blessing.

When God Comes In

In Galatians 4:4, it says that in the fullness of time, God sent His son. Some people argue about the right time, having the Roman peace, the law, the Greek language and culture uniting.

You had the Jewish Diaspora so the gospel could spread. You had a great crisis in spirituality and the Roman Empire was just ripe for it. There's truth to that.

It says "in the fullness of time God sent his son" can be read in another way. When God sends His son and when the gift of God comes into your life, it's the fullness of time. When you let God in, it becomes full not just once; but every day we ought to let God come in.

We so often focus on the situation; we want it to be right so the blessing of God can come. But if you're focusing on the situation, you're never going to focus on the presence of God.

The point is, let God come into the situation and it'll become right and it will be perfect. And it will become the fullness of time for your life.
