Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know." jer 33:3

"calling God

l

hello God, I called tonight to talk a little while.
i need a friend who'll listen to my anxiety and trial.

You see, i can't quite make it through a day just on my own.
i need Your love to guide me,
so i'll never feel alone.

i want to ask You please to keep my family safe and sound.
come and fill their lives with confidence for whatever fate they're bound.

give me faith, dear God, to face each hour throughout the day and not to worry over things i can't change in any way.

i thank You God for being home
and listening to my call, for giving me such good advice
when i stumble and fall.

Your number, God, is the only one that answers every time.

t never get a busy signal,
never had to pay a dime.

so thank You, God, for listening to my troubles and my sorrow.
good night, God, i love You too,
and i'll call again tomorrow!

you know, He's waiting for your call. how long has it been since you dialed His number. it's not even a long distance call. He came and died just so it could be a person-to-person call... or a person-to-God call.

"prayer is either a discipline or a delight. if you focus on the act of prayer it is a discipline, when you focus on a person (GOD) it becomes a delight. prayer as a delight is centered on GOD." a quote by kingsley opuwari manuel.

there's a tendency to always go to God in a crisis.
ah, but to go to Him just because you want to be with Him, because you too seek the fellowship He does... that is joy unspeakable. this is entering into the holiest of holies... a place once approached only upon fear of death has now been made approachable to all who would. this is the closeness and intimacy Jesus made possible by His coming, and yes, by His death.

"then He said to them, 'with fervent desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer."
luke 22:15 can you imagine the fervent desire the Holy Spirit has now to lead us into the presence of Jesus?
"faith is the road, but communion with Jesus is the well from which the pilgrim drinks.” – Charles Haddon Spurgeon

so go ahead now. drink from that living water. it is generally accepted one can only go three days without water. i have done that fast before but wouldn't necessarily recommend it without Godly leading. the point being, i have known thirst. now i would rather know a death from thirst than from His presence. i pray you too desire that intimacy.
