another day has come for us to look unto the Lord our Maker; look to Him with love, admiration and expectancy. yes expectancy. has He not said: "call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know." jer 33:3

there's only one problem. to call to Him, you have to spend time with Him. and our ears need to be trained to hear. we must become sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit. "whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you." john 16:13-14 and so. i have a little poem to share with you today. yes, it's about talking to our Father. just don't forget the intro: "enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. be thankful to Him, and bless His name." psa 100:4

Hello God, I called tonight
To talk a little while.
I need a friend who'll listen
To my anxiety and trial.

You see, I can't quite make it
Through a day just on my own.
I need your love to guide me,
So I'll never feel alone.

I want to ask You please to keep
My family safe and sound.
Come and fill their lives with confidence
For whatever fate they're bound.

Give me faith, dear God, to face
Each hour throughout the day
And not to worry over things
I can't change in any way.

I thank you God for being home
And listening to my call,
For giving me such good advice
When I stumble and fall.

Your number, God, is the only one
That answers every time.
I never get a busy signal,
Never had to pay a dime.

So thank you, God, for listening
To my troubles and my sorrow.
Good night, God, I love You too,
And I'll call again tomorrow!

just talk to Him. He misses you much more than you miss Him. He longs to bring you into fellowship with Him; into His "inner circle". do you ever remember back in your youth, wanting to be included with the "in crowd"? well, this is the "ultimate" in crowd and you have a standing invite; "whosoever will". rev 22:17.

the question is: will you? He's waiting now. but hours slip by. days slip by. years slip by. all time that may not be had to waste. His word speaks frequently about the fullness of things; the fullness of sin, the fullness of joy, the fullness of time. is your time too full for Him? what if His time becomes too full for you? "behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." 2 cor 6:2 don't put it off until tomorrow. tomorrow may be too late.
