i believe

let me begin at the beginning ...

i believe that Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God.

i believe that our consciousness is not confined to the physical being - there is a sovereign and more powerful spiritual realm.

i believe that beauty is life displaying the essence of it's true being - that all are without excuse to recognize the Godhead and true creator.

i believe love is the act that tries to bring beauty into being - that Christ first loved us ... and He loved us from the beginning.

i believe that love is the glue and the bridge - a sacrificial, giving love ... not man's love of self and things.

i believe that the real heroes in life are the battlers and the givers, and those that are both are extra special - these are those who battle not in their own strength but in God's.

i believe in the worth of little things - in smiles, in hugs, in laughs, in well done, you're good, thanks - but most of all, thanks to Jesus.

i believe that when i have done well, i should tell those who have made it so - it is not i but Christ that dwells in me.

i believe in the joy in a sparkling eye - in bringing light into darkness - where there is strife, let me sow peace.

i believe the whole is much bigger than the sum of the parts - that all things work together for good to those who love God.

i believe in being the best friend i can be - imitating the One who is a friend to me.

i believe in facing each day anew and leaving behind the troubles and mistakes of yesterday - sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

i believe that one of the best things i can do for others is to show them i believe in them - that they can do all things through Christ who strengthens them.

i believe all of human kind is to be treasured - for all are loved by God and precious in His sight.

i believe in helping people up - just as Christ my Lord has lifted me up to sit in heavenly places.

i believe that the worth of my life will depend on how i have loved and laughed, cared and shared - and not on the length of my years or the balance in my account.

i believe that no matter what my circumstances, i can succeed; for success in Christ Jesus is how i face life.

i believe that if i do not give my best, i cheat only myself - so i will run the race that i may win Christ and be found in Him.

i believe that fortune favors me much more when i have a goal, a purpose - making a determined effort - just as Jesus set His Self determined to go top the cross.

i believe in balance and harmony - that at some time during the day it is important to rest and be still and enjoy the moment and exalt the Creator.

i believe everyone is somebody and somebody is everyone - called, wanted and sought by God.

i believe my name will be called when the book of life is opened.

i believe, i believe, i believe.

what do you believe?
