Storm devastates Washington as Biden admin. plans for Israel to concede land

One of the worst storms in decades ripped through Washington DC, over the weekend, leaving devastation in its path. The storm comes as the Biden administration announced negotiations with Saudi Arabia that would require Israel to make massive concessions in land to the Palestinians. While the two seem unconnected, students of history know that milestones in the "land for peace" process have always been accompanied by natural disasters.

Transhumanism: Globalists Promise To 'Improve' On God's Design Of Man

It sounds like bad science fiction, but it is rapidly becoming reality. Some of the most powerful people on the planet think they are going to "upgrade" human beings - or at least some human beings - through genetic engineering and technological schemes such as "brain implants." Yes, really. In fact, they are publicly touting alleged benefits, supposedly including eternal life, and even evolving into "gods." If that all sounds crazy or even diabolical - good, it should, because it is.

Dividing Israel into two? Author who fictionalized scenario years ago discusses movement to do exactly that

Author Gila Green, whose 2013 novel was based on a fictional division of the State of Israel into two separate entities – one religious and one secular – discussed with World Israel News the uncanny situation now, in which some activists are promoting exactly that.
