

God with us

as we journey through the biblical account of Jesus' birth, we find that this story encompasses the entirety of the roman world. it is a tale that weaves together the faith of a young woman chosen to bear the Son of God and the righteousness of a man who willingly accepts the profound responsibility of raising the Savior of the world.

this narrative features angelic visitations, heavenly pronouncements, and the involvement of shepherds and magi who recognize Jesus as the Prince of Peace and the Wonderful Counselor.

“the virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him mmanuel (which means ‘God with us’).” matt 1:23 with each retelling, this remarkable story continues to inspire faith, hope, and goodwill among all the children of God. it reminds us that the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. as we immerse ourselves in the biblical verses that recount this pivotal moment in history, we find that the story of Jesus' birth remains a beacon of love, peace, and eternal significance.

“in Him was life, and the life was the light of men. and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.” john 1:4-5

so, as we prepare to celebrate the Christmas season, let us remember the miraculous events, the prophecies fulfilled, and the divine grace that unfolded in the birth of Jesus. it is a story of God's boundless love for humanity, a love that took the form of a vulnerable baby, born in a humble stable, to bring salvation and eternal life to all who believe.

"for to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. and he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." isa 9:6

the christmas story in the bible is a testament to the enduring power of faith, the triumph of love, and the promise of eternal hope. may it continue to touch our hearts and inspire us to share the good news of great joy with the world, for in the birth of Jesus, we find the ultimate gift of God's grace and love.

the story of the birth of Jesus is the most important story ever told – and that is why we celebrate the christmas season each year.
