church bulletin bloopers 1

the scouts are saving aluminum cans, bottles and other items to be recycled. proceeds will be used to cripple children.

the pastor would appreciate it if the ladies of the congregation would lend him their electric girdles for the pancake breakfast next Sunday morning.

our youth basketball team is back in action wednesday at 8 PM in the recreation hall. come out and watch us kill Christ the King.

the peacemaking meeting scheduled for today has been canceled due to a conflict.

remember in prayer the many who are sick of our community. smile at someone who is hard to love. say "hell" to someone who doesn't care much about you.

for those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

next thursday there will be tryouts for the choir. they need all the help they can get.

irving benson and jessie carter were married on october 24 in the church. so ends a friendship that began in their school days.

at the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be "what is hell?" come early and listen to our choir practice.

this evening at 7 pm there will be a hymn singing in the park across from the church. bring a blanket and come prepared to sin.

weight watchers will meet at 7 pm at the first presbyterian church. please use large double door at the side entrance.

the associate minister unveiled the church's new tithing campaign slogan last Sunday: "i upped my pledge -- up yours."

the fasting and prayer conference includes meals.

yes, we make bloopers in our bulletins and we make bloopers in our lives. the good thing is: "if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 john 1:9

it doesn't hurt to laugh at ourselves and the silly things we sometimes do. but we need to know when silly becomes serious. God knows when we're going to "mess up" even before we do. He has made provision for that in His Son. so don't give up just because you mess up.

i am reminded of the famous quotation by augustine of hippo. "Thou hast made us for Thyself, o Lord, and our heart is restless until it finds its rest in Thee." i promise everyone, it is a rest that one can never find in this world. it is a peace that passes all understanding.
