so shines God, so shines a nation

Franklin D. Roosevelt died April 12, 1945. The day after his funeral, President Harry S Truman told Congress, April 16, 1945:

"Our forefathers came to our rugged shores in search of religious tolerance. In the memory of our fallen President I appeal to every American to support our efforts to build a strong and lasting United Nations Organization ... with Divine guidance, and your help. I humbly pray Almighty God, in the words of King Solomon: 'Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart.'"

The United Nations began with high hopes, as President Harry S Truman stated, March 6, 1946:

"We have just come through a decade in which the forces of evil in various parts of the world have been lined up in a bitter fight to banish from the face of the earth both these ideals -- religion and democracy -- founded on one basic principle, the worth and dignity of the individual man and woman.

Dictatorship is founded on the doctrine that men and women and children were put on earth solely for the purpose of serving the State." Truman continued: "The Protestant Church, the Catholic Church, and the Jewish Synagogue -- bound together in the American unity of brotherhood -- must provide the shock forces to accomplish this moral and spiritual awakening ...

Unless it is done, we are headed for the disaster we would deserve ... We have tried to write into the Charter of the United Nations the essence of religion." One of the first acts of the United Nations was, on May 15, 1948, to recognize the State of Israel.

Truman commented at a Press Conference (New York Times, August 17, 1945):

"The American view on Palestine is that we want to let as many of the Jews into Palestine as it is possible." The 1948 Democrat Party Platform stated: "We pledge full recognition to the State of Israel. We affirm our pride that the United States under the leadership of President Truman played a leading role in the adoption of the resolution of November 29, 1947, by the United Nations General Assembly for the creation of a Jewish State."

The President of the United Nations' General Assembly, 13th Session, was Lebanese diplomat Charles Habib Malik, who helped Eleanor Roosevelt and others write the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Charles Habib Malik stated in 1958: "The good (in the United States) would never have come into being without the blessing and power of Jesus Christ ...

Whoever tries to conceive the American word without taking full account of the suffering and love and salvation of Christ is only dreaming.

I know how embarrassing this matter is to politicians, bureaucrats, businessmen and cynics; but, whatever these honored men think, the irrefutable truth is that the soul of America is at its best and highest, Christian."

In subsequent years, the mission of the United Nations has become unclear.

indeed it has been a 6000 year battle and indeed the mission of the united nations has become unclear - or has it become clarified at last? a quest of evil for total control; to put mankind in chains and ultimately to usurp the Almighty. even now there is a plan to "confirm" a treaty with many in september of this year; a seven year treaty for those who have an understanding.

people, look around you and then look to One rescue from it all. "righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." prov 14:34 pray for america. there is no hope in man or country - only God. america, how far you have fallen.
