Chilling advice for Putin: You can save Russia, crush West, with nukes

That frightening document, which published in late June, goes on for another 2,900 words to conclude using "God's weapon of Armageddon" will prevent – not create – a worsening crisis in Europe.

Col. Douglas Macgregor warns the US 'may not make it' to the 2024 presidential election

Before moving on to his analysis, in which he argues that due to political and economic conditions that the next presidential election may not take place, the brief video opens with a recently released recording of President Donald Trump.

Pope Francis picks notorious pro-LGBT clerics to participate in October Synod on Synodality

As such, a differentiation can be observed between the delegates chosen by their own local churches or bishops' conferences to participate in the Synod, and those personally picked by Pope Francis.

CDC Has 'Lost All Credibility,' Lawmaker Says as Agency Pushes 'Chestfeeding'

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidance for transgender individuals seeking to "chestfeed" their infants has some lawmakers concerned that the agency is prioritizing politics before patients' health.

'America's Darkest Secret': Sex Trafficking, Child Abuse, & The Biden Administration

The criminal practice of trafficking and abusing hundreds of thousands of migrant children who cross the southern border is now, thanks to the open-border policy of the Biden Administration, apparently "normal" inside the US:

Church of England Torn Between Liberals Who Embrace Gay Wedding and Conservatives Who Reject It – Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, Takes Responsibility for Steep Decline in Attendance

The Church of England (CoE) and the greater Anglican community is facing a dilemma: just how much should they embrace gay relationships? Should they 'evolve' with the times, or hold on to centuries of doctrine?

Solar maximum could hit us harder and sooner than we thought. How ...

This period of increased activity, known as solar maximum, is also a potentially perilous time for Earth, which gets bombarded by solar storms that can disrupt communications, damage power infrastructure, harm some living creatures (including astronauts) and send satellites plummeting toward the planet.

World powers in rush to get killer robots on battlefield in AI arms race, as concerns grow they can turn on humans

Military forces around the globe are in a covert arms race to develop terrifying new AI weaponry, a new documentary exploring the future of artificial intelligence in battle reveals.

Biblical Prophecy: It Has Never Been More Vital That Churches Teach It, And Believers Understand It
It's not just the convergence of a host of prophetic signs that make it so, but the existential dangers to our lives and livelihood that threaten everyone. I have watched recordings from the World Economic Forum (WEF) meetings during which time the elite talk openly about the need to drastically reduce the world's population.

Britain Announces AI Rollout for Its Socialized Healthcare System.

Britain's National Health Service (NHS) is turning to Artificial Intelligence (AI) and "robotic process automation" to shorten growing hospital waiting lists and ease pressures created in part by mass migration. Prime Minister Rishi Sunak claims the reforms will make the socialized healthcare system "fit for the future".

Canadian health agency includes pro-euthanasia slideshow in pension packages to seniors
...Included in the slideshow was text on "expressions of wanting to die," saying that it could be used to "promote a sense of control" as well as talk of being able to die by euthanasia in only a "day." British Columbia has seen a 24% increase in medical assistance in dying (MAiD). In total, some 2,515 people died from MAiD in 2022 alone in British Columbia.

This Harvard Professor Believes He's Found Pieces Of "Alien Technology" In The Waters Off Of Papua New Guinea

Harvard professor Avi Loeb believes he may have found fragments of alien technology from a meteor that landed in 2014. Loeb's team brought the materials back for analysis. U.S. Space Command confirms with almost near certainty, 99.999%, that it came from another solar system.

84% Jabbed Peru Declares Health Emergency After Guillain-Barre Outbreak

A health emergency has been declared in Peru amidst a Guillain-Barre syndrome outbreak. Guillain-Barre syndrome is a rare and dangerous neurological disorder, the increased development of which has been linked directly to COVID jabs. In Peru, more than 84% of citizens are reported to be "fully vaccinated" against COVID-19, raising the specter that the country's embrace of the jab could be behind the Guillain-Barre outbreak.

AGENDA 2030: The USDA Approves Bill Gates Lab-Grown 'Frankenfood' Meat As Our Global Society Lurches Ever Forward Into A Dystopian Abyss

Phase 2 of the Great Reset continues to go forward quite nicely as key elements of the soon-coming UN Agenda 2030 are locking into place. One of the things so despised by our New World Order masters are things, like food items, that God has created for us to eat and enjoy, are being replaced with disgusting Frankenfood made in a test tube. What's on the menu in the kingdom of Antichrist? Test-tube chicken, test-tube steak, cricket flour and all sorts of creeping things.

WEF collaborators want to threaten us to ensure compliance with their climate change goals

World Economic Forum (“WEF”) collaborators discussed using central bank digital currencies (“CDBC”) to control what people purchase. Not to be outdone in dictating to the world, “climate change” cultists discussed whether to threaten or incentivise people to “comply” with climate goals. Unsurprisingly, the use of threats was preferred to ensure obedience.

Four in 10 Brown University students claim they’re LGBTQ, confirming massive leftist social contagion and brainwashing

When the “LGBTQ” movement began in earnest a few years ago, the globalist left ensured that it infected every corner of Western civilization and society, and now, their effort to tear away huge chunks of traditional values has proven successful. This is especially true on college and university campuses, where fads like this become all the rage and infect entire student bodies.

Academy of Breastfeeding Medicine: “Inducing Lactation May Present More of a Challenge for Transgender Individuals.” – CDC Highlights Stunning Scientific Discoveries From Clown World in Official Handout
The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention’s “Health Equity Considerations” handout is an exercise of insanity – reminding anyone who’s willing to listen that an “individual does not need to have given birth to breastfeed or chestfeed.”

Not Science Fiction: Neuralink Brain Chip Implant To Begin In-human Clinical Study
Here is something else that used to be science fiction – brain implants. Wireless chips are being inserted into the brain allowing the person to control devices mentally. This is no longer science fiction.

Iran's president: homosexuality will end 'generation of human beings'

"The West today is trying to promote the idea of homosexuality and by promoting homosexuality they are trying to end the generation of human beings. " He added "The Western countries try to identify homosexuality as an index of civilization, while this is one of the dirtiest issues."

Did aliens prevent nuclear war? Former NASA astronaut claims they did

Mitchell, the sixth man to set foot on the moon, was interviewed back in 2016, where he admitted to being convinced of the existence of aliens and extensively spoke about claims that aliens have visited Earth. In that conversation with the Daily Mirror, he raised the astonishing claim that aliens were responsible for preventing a nuclear war between the United States and the Soviet Union during the peak tension of the Cold War.

forgive me for the length, but it is getting harder and harder to cram headlines from a week into one day.
