sunday solace - come close to Him

"He took peter and john and james, and went up into a mountain to pray, and as he prayed, the fashion of His countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening ... they saw His glory." luke 9:29,32

when Jesus took these three disciples up into that high mountain apart, He brought them into close communion with Himself. they saw no man but Jesus only; and it was good to be there. heaven is not far from those who tarry on the mount with their Lord.

who has not in moments of meditation and prayer caught a glimpse of opening gates? who has not in the secret place of holy communion felt the rush of some white surging wave of emotion - a foretaste of the joy of the blessed?

the Master had times and places for quiet converse with His disciples, once on the peak of Hermon, but oftener on the sacred slopes of olivet. every christian should have his olivet. most of us, especially in the cities and towns, live at high pressure. from early morning until bedtime we are exposed to the whirl. amid all this maelstrom how little chance for quiet thought, for God's Word, for prayer and heart fellowship!

daniel needed to have an olivet in his chamber amid babylon's roar and idolatries. peter found his on a housetop in joppa; and martin luther found his in the "upper room" at wittenberg, which is still held sacred.

dr. joseph parker once said: "if we do not get back to visions, peeps into heaven, consciousness of the higher glory and the larger life, we shall lose our religion; our altar will become a bare stone, unblessed by visitant from heaven." here is the world's need today - men who have seen their Lord. the lost art of meditation come close to Him! He may take you today up into the mountain top, for where He took peter with his blundering, and james and john, those sons of thunder who again and again so utterly misunderstood their Master and His mission, there is no reason why He should not take you. so don't shut yourself out of it and say, "ah, these wonderful visions and revelations of the Lord are for choice spirits!" they may be for you! - john mcneill

"but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law he meditates day and night." psa 1:2 we have forsaken the art of meditation - to simply dwell on a single scripture and absorb all the juice and truth it has to offer. psalm 119 is full of verses directing us to the joys and wisdom to be gained from such an adventure; and adventurous it will be.

don't deny yourself of all that God wants to share with you. it will ease our path in these trying times.
