isn't it funny

"i said in my heart, 'come now, i will test you with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure"; but surely, this also was vanity. i said of laughter – 'madness!'; and of mirth, 'what does it accomplish?'" eccl 2:1-2 funny how simple it is for people to trash God and then wonder why the world's going to hell.

funny how we believe what the newspapers say, but question what the bible says.

funny how everyone wants to go to heaven, provided they do not have to believe, think, say, or do anything the bible says.

funny how someone can say "i believe in God," but still follow satan who, by the way, also "believes" in God.

funny how we are quick to judge, but not to be judged.

funny how you can send a thousand 'jokes' through e-mail and they spread like wildfire, but when you start sending messages regarding the Lord, people think twice about sharing.

funny how the lewd, crude, vulgar and obscene pass freely through cyberspace, but the public discussion of God is suppressed in the school and workplace.

funny how someone can be so fired up for Christ on sunday, but be an invisible christian the rest of the week.

are you laughing yet?

funny how, when you go to email a message like this,
you will not send it to many on your address list, because you're not sure what they believe, or what they will think of you for sending it to them.

funny how one can be more worried about what other people think of them than what God thinks of them.

are YOU thinking?

maybe pass this on... if you think it has merit. if not, then just discard it. no one will know that you did. but if you discard this meaningful thought process, then don't sit back and complain about the sinful shape of the world!

perhaps things won't be so funny for many on judgement day!!!
