the King's highway
(a repeat daily)

"we will go by the king's highway until we have passed through your territory." num 21:22

this world is the territory we are traveling through.
we must stay on the highway and not be diverted.

once a king had a great highway built for the members of his kingdom. after it was completed but before it was opened to the public, the king decided to have a contest. he invited as many as desired to participate. their challenge was to see who could travel the highway the best.

on the day of the contest, the people came. some of them had fine chariots. some had fine clothing, fine hairdos, or great food. some young men came in their track clothes and ran along the highway. people traveled the highway all day, but each one, when he arrived at the end, complained to the king that there was a large pile of rocks and debris left on the road at one spot and that this got in their way and hindered their travel.

at the end of the day, a lone traveler crossed the finish line warily and walked over to the king. he was tired and dirty, but he addressed the king with great respect and was handed a bag of gold.

he explained, "i stopped along the way to clear a pile of rocks and debris that was blocking the road. this bag of gold was under it all. i want you to return it to its rightful owner."

the king replied, "you are the rightful owner."

the traveler replied, "oh no, this is not mine. i've never known such money."

"oh yes," said the king, "you've earned this gold, for you won my contest. he who travels the road best is he who makes the road smoother for those who will follow."

"a highway shall be there, and a road, and it shall be called the highway of holiness. the unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for others. whoever walks the road, although a fool, shall not go astray."
isa 35:8

diversions, obstructions, weariness, they all seek to keep us from our destination - to reach our destination and receive the King's greeting. but, "we will go along the King's highway; we will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left until we have passed through your territory." num 20:17 the greeting we travel to hear: "well done, good and faithful servant ... enter into the joy of your lord." matt 25:23 friends, this is a not i wish to add to this daily, although with much sorrow. it seems the church of God is once more besmirched by the world. another prominent leader is entangled with scandal. while facts are still coming into play we know how many before have tarnished that name. instead of clearing the road for others, they have added additional stumbling blocks.

my first reaction was to shed many tears before the Lord and apologized to God that once again His church has added even the shadow of a scandal to that precious name. then tears turned to the one who had stumbled; that if all were true, he would repent and find his way back to the fold.

we all stumble in many ways, and the one who thinks otherwise, be forewarned unless they fall as well. we all stand by grace alone and that not of our self. Lord, please allow those who have gotten lost to find their way back into the light and may we all love and delight in the light and it's works. in Jesus name.
