

this can't go on forever

"therefore I will number you for the sword, and you shall all bow down to the slaughter; because, when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not hear, but did evil before My eyes, and chose that in which I do not delight." isa 65:12

these are those who do not delight in His ways; those ones who love the darkness more than the light. a Godly heart cannot understand such a thing, but truth remains truth regardless of one's invented truth. scripture tells us that even the evil doers love their own. but it is a selective love; a worldly love; not the love of God.

reading scripture now is almost like reading the daily newspaper. lawlessness and self-centeredness are overwhelming. just read for yourselves. does this not describe our times to a tee?

"but know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: for men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power... led away by various lusts, always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth." 2 tim 3:1-7

the other day i watched a young person on a plane disputing with an elder that they were a boy and not a girl. the amount of arrogance and lack of respect was overwhelming. their minds have become so darkened i fear their confusion nears being given over. it's like a riddle, wrapped in a mystery, inside an enigma. an enlightened mind cannot comprehend it and certainly not approve of the disrespect they show in wildly defending their confusion. "they sow the wind, and reap the whirlwind. the stalk has no bud; it shall never produce meal. if it should produce, aliens would swallow it up." hos 8:7

and don't you find it interesting how the Spirit uses "aliens" in that verse? will aliens contribute to unbeliever's ultimate deception at the rapture? it is no longer a topic shrouded in secrecy and ridiculed. it is openly discussed, none realizing these are really the evil ones, perhaps appearing as an angel of light. much as the anti-christ will appear, bringing solutions (peace and safety) when he is revealed. their admiration will blossom into worship. oh yes, he is just silently awaiting for his time to come - until believer's hosting the Holy Spirit are no longer here to restrain.

i am hearing they expect all humans to be merged with neural implants by 2030; a boom for mankind and a benefit allowing kids to learn faster and better. there are already volunteers for the "musk chip." those of us older may remember the tv show, "the six million dollar man." their opening tag line was, "we can rebuild him. we have the technology. we can make him better than he was. better, stronger, faster." obviously insinuating better than God created man. and isn't it great that the price has finally come down on something. i wonder how often our entertainment has predicted our future. is the "terminator" a precursor to artificial intelligence next?

as i noted before, now they are talking about creating synthetic life. can anybody say, "the days of noah?" "they ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

likewise as it was also in the days of lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built." luke 17:27-28 this is just further confirmation to me that there will be a pre-trib rapture. these things will not be normal at the end of jacob's trouble. turmoil and death will prevent life and leisure from continuing as normal.

only the blinded fail to see or admit we are at that point now; in the days when the world had become so adulterated and degenerate that all, save eight, had to be destroyed. "do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap." gal 6:7

so i say again, "this can't go on forever." many people think i am just rapture crazy but i honestly can understand why others can't see what i see coming, and coming fast. i know many are not even looking, just blindly going forth as sheep to the slaughter. even many christians believe His coming is yet far off. how can they look at everything combined and say that it will be maybe 30 years or 20 or 10 or even 5 years away?

yes, this next rapture watch may come and go as all the others before have. if that happens we will dutifully look for that next "expected" time. regardless of what others may say, all things "do not" continue as they were from the beginning of creation. as we rapidly run to and fro, our knowledge has increased with the years. as knowledge is increasing exponentially, so is sin. the light is fading rapidly from hearts desiring to wallow in debauchery. sin is being harvested faster than it can be sown.

abraham talked God down to 5 righteous people trying to save sodom, but i don't believe there will be any talking God down this time. not with all the souls slain for their testimony of Christ crying out: "how long, o Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" rev 6:10 not with all those on earth who are bearing witness to His love and free gift, now joining in the sing-along.

scripture tells us His mercy endures forever, but He is also "just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus." rom 3:26. justice and righteousness will prevail.
